Become a 'Mumtrepreneur' with Xpresso Delight

Xpresso Delight works by franchisees installing Swiss made espresso coffee machines into businesses for free, with clients simply charged a low rate per cup.

Adelaide Mum-to-be Nezarie Surquia took on the Xpresso Delight business in September 2009 after years working in a supermarket.

"I used to work 12 hour days, 7 days per week," she said. "I wasn't able to have much of a life or any time with my partner or friends."

"These days I work 20 hours per week visiting clients and looking after my machines and the rest of my time is spent on important things like getting our house ready for the new arrival."

Because Xpresso Delight coffee machines are always generating income, franchisees can work less than 20 hours and turn over between $1,000 and $2,000 per week.

For more information about becoming an Xpresso Delight franchisee contact Xpresso Delight SA Master Agent Trevor Spurr on 0400 297 959 or email trevor.spurr@xpressodelight.com.au.
